

Rebelse Strop

Five years ago we created Gentse Strop, and now we think it's time to give that special blonde beer a little brother. Rebelse Strop is just as proud and headstrong as its big brother, yet entirely different due to its recalcitrant temperament.

Tasting

Nose/aromas: Earthy aromas merge into a light fruity smell.

Flavour: The unruly Brett yeast causes the taste of the beer to keep developing long after bottling. Rebelse Strop that is rather young gets a more complex flavour: fruity, hopbitter and with a subtle acidity. In time, Rebelse Strop gets a slightly softer, rounder flavour. 6.9%
